On September 22, 2006, at the annual joint meeting of the Illinois Press Association and the Illinois Associated Press Editors Association, The Pantagraph education reporters Phyllis Coulter and Michele Steinbacher received the Illinois Press Association third place award in the Best School Board Coverage category. This award recognizes excellence in a single article or series of related articles. The honor was based upon a series of articles dealing with air conditioning in Unit 5 elementary schools.

The Illinois Press Association and the Illinois Associated Press Editors Association annually offer a variety of contests for newspapers of various circulation sizes, and The Pantagraph competes against the largest newspapers in Illinois, including those published in Chicago, Rockford, Springfield and Peoria.

Phyllis and Michele continue to do high quality reporting of news related to Unit 5 schools. We applaud their past efforts and this award, and look forward to continuing to work together to inform our community.
