

List of Private String Teachers 2007-2008

Private lessons are the BEST way for students to progress most quickly. The one-on-one individual help, combined with regular home practice is usually is a great recipe for success. Private lessons are highly recommended for every student, regardless of their age or ability level.

The following are individuals who have a degree in music and have had experience in teaching private lessons. You will need to contact them to see if they have any openings. In the past, these teacher's time slots have filled quickly. You may even need to be put on a waiting list to study with them.

Adult Private String Teachers

(Who may be accepting students at this time.)

Stephanie Kinzinger (violin) 664-2181

Rachel Sompong (violin and viola) 663-8424

Kate Lewis (viola instructor at ISU) 438-2951

Adriana Ransom (cello instructor at ISU) 438-8009

Brian Dollinger (string bass) 563-506-2169 (Bradley Orchestra Director)

The following are music students at IWU & ISU. After you make a phone contact with these individuals, you should meet with them and observe them teach your child a lesson. Hopefully, you will be able to find someone who your child will work well with. Be sure to ask them about their experience, and which age levels that they feel most comfortable teaching. Since we have not met most of these students, except for the ones who will be student teaching with us, we do not know whether to recommend them or not. However, all of them asked to be included on this list.
