LANGUAGE ARTS:

This week in IWi we read the story "Friends Forever" in our reading books. They also enjoyed partner reading different versions of this story with their friends. Students wrote in their journals about what they enjoyed doing with their friends, fiction stories about penguins, and Martin Luther King Jr. 's dream. Along with "Friends Forever", our lessons focused on several skills. Students focused on ending sound "le" as in bottle, word endings -ed, ing, -s, rec-

This 'N That

The students had a wonderful time jump roping for Haley. Please keep her in your thoughts. Thank you for all the donations that you have sent in to help this wonderful cause. ENJOY THE LONG WEEKEND!

ognizing fact/fiction stories, and capitalization of proper nouns. Please have your child read the story "Friends Forever" to you on pages 112-137. Please study the new vocabulary words.

SPELLING:

Fun ways to practice spelling:

- Write your words in alphabetical order.
- Use all your words in 10 sentences.
- Write your words in whipped cream, peanut butter, or anything you can eat!

MATH:

Have you purchased your addition/subtraction flashcards? These are to be kept at home for practicing the math facts.

SCIENCE:

We started Chapter 8: Observing Matter in our science books. The students are learning how objects can be describe, classified, and compared by their composition and their physical properties.
