- Missouri State is located in the heart of Springfield, the third largest city in Missouri with over 450,000 in the five-county metropolitan area. MSU is the second largest university in the state of Missouri, with more than 24,000 students enrolled through the Springfield campus. However, despite being large in size, the average student-to-faculty ratio is only 22:1.
- Illinois students can take advantage of the Midwest Student Exchange Program scholarship, earning in-state tuition with one of the following: 3.5+ GPA/4.0 scale, 24+ ACT/1180 SAT, top 25% class rank, or family that is an alumni of MSU.
- Recently completed projects across campus give a fresh new look and feel to many buildings, including the expanded business building, Glass Hall, and the new three-story Magers Health and Wellness Center. Many new features within these facilities include new dining opportunities, such as Einstein Bro's Bagels in Glass Hall and a Women's health center and mental health and counseling services within Magers' Health.
- Admission requirements are made known to the public, therefore, students know before they even apply whether they make a good candidate for admission. A recent change to the requirements now includes a minimum SAT/ACT (900/17).
- For admission, we do require that students have taken some type of a fine art class for the core academic requirements. For Illinois students however, we will allow a substitution as we know many schools do not require students take a fine art course for graduation

- The University of Missouri- known as Mizzou- is the public land-grant research university and flagship campus of the UM System, serving over 32,000 students. It was founded in 1839 as the first public institution west of the Mississippi River and is home to the world’s first Journalism school. The campus is located in the heart of Columbia, MO. Columbia-known to residents as CoMo-is consistently ranked as one of the top 10 college towns in the United States.
- Out-of-state students can qualify for in-state tuition in one of two ways: select freshman scholarships or the Residency program. After living in Missouri for their first year of school and completing the necessary steps, students can petition for Residency beginning their sophomore year. The straightforward process only takes one year and saves families an estimated ~$50,000 over their remaining three years.

- Mizzou students can choose from over 300 academic programs and can be undecided at the time of application. MU is one of only six public universities in the United States to offer a Medical School, Veterinary School and Law School on one campus.
- Mizzou is 1 of 34 public universities and 1 of 4 SEC schools to be a member of the Association of American Universities (AAU). MU's membership is a reflection of its exceptional scholarship and research. Mizzou receives over $100 million in federal research funding each year.
- The University is credited to being the birthplace of the Homecoming tradition in the United States. Leading up to the Homecoming football game, students can participate in a variety of campus wide activities including the food drive, blood drive, parade, campus decorations and campus competitions. Homecoming is Mizzou's most celebrated tradition; about 50,000 alumni, students and friends attend the Homecoming parade every year.

- Most employers in the USA consider degrees earned in the UK to be the same as or better than those earned in the US.
Employers are seeking candidates who are well-rounded, with a relevant degree from a reputable university or programme, and they perceive these things to be generally characteristic of Americans who have studied at universities in the UK.
- Our tuition is roughly $17,000 a year (once converted from pounds to dollars).
Our Bachelor's degrees are 3 years long which saves students a year's worth of tuition and living expenses.
- Roehampton has the first and only BFA in Dance.
We are #1 for Dance research in the UK.
- Roehampton does not offer any Liberal Art degrees nor do we offer any prerequisite classes. If a student is studying History, they will be studying History throughout their studies.
