Calling All Talented 3rd, 4th and 5th Graders

Once again we are having try-outs for our talent show to be presented to our staff and students on the last after noon of the school year (May 30th) Students may sing, dance, act, play an instrument or share a unique talent. Not all students who try out will make the all-school performance, but all students will get the chance to perform for their class during music the last weeks of school. Students may see Mr. Myers for questions.

Box Top Winners!

The box tops have been tallied for the year and the class that collected the most was 5B who will get a pizza party. Thank you to all of our families who turned in 12,000 box tops which gave our school around $1,200!

Mrs. Fisher Retires

Wednesday May 8 anytime between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 a.m.

A BIG Thank You Is In Order!

Our utmost thanks to our PTO and numerous parents, grandparents and community volunteers who spent countless hours this year cutting, sorting, assisting students, planning, weeding, reading, shelving books, doing presentations, chaperoning field trips and doing so many other things to help our students and staff. You have been very special to us.
