DIRECTORS' NOTES

Caitlin Feuer* and Rachel Paturi:

It is an incredible experience to see something you have helped create come to life on stage. Both of us have invested a lot of time and effort into our production. Not only has this experience helped our cast grow as actors, but they have helped us grow as people, directors and leaders. We would like to thank our cast, crew and Mrs. Vernon who has truly made this amazing experience possible.

Drew Durbin* and Andy Ludwig*:

Firstly, we would like to thank everyone involved with the show. All the actors, techies, our writer Jessi Ensenberger and of course our wonderful director Kevin Vernon. It was a very enjoyable experience and we both learned a lot. We are used to being actors, so this was an interesting change of perspective for us. We hope that you enjoy watching the show as much as we enjoyed directing it.

Nate Price:

Normal Community High School's theatre program is truly something to marvel at. I've seen so many talented students come through and leave a mark here that I'm eager to see what the future holds for the stage. Nothing displays the talents of these students better than our SOS program. Student writers, directors, designers and actors all get to shine and show what they can do. Probably, the most impressive thing about this program is its constant search for new talent. Anyone is welcome to join. I myself only got involved last year and here I am directing. Everyone gets a change, it's what makes this program great. The play I directed is a deep story of finding what works best for you, and not just going along with what the world expects. I was lucky enough to have an amazing cast and everyday was a blast. I'm very proud to have been a part of this and I wish everyone the best of luck in the future. Break a leg!
