Thank you to everyone for auditioning and joining us once more for callbacks! We are very happy to have all these new (and returning) faces, and cannot wait to work with you as a company. We love tech, so please do not be discouraged if you were not cast, we need techies! We're very impressed by all of you, and each of us is beyond excited to see where this production goes. For all casts – we are meeting in Vern's room (room 39) to hand out scripts, discuss the shows, and potentially hold a read-through tomorrow. Make sure your parent letters are in by that time. Please be present! Thanks – your directors.
